

MU – CU JOINT SYMPOSIUM 2019 ‘INTEGRATED HORTICULTURE FOR BETTER QUALITY OF LIFE’

Faculty of Science, Mahidol University (MUSC), together with Graduate school of Horticulture, Chiba University (CUHORT) co-organized MU – CU Joint Symposium 2019 ‘Integrated Horticulture for Better Quality of Life’, on May 10th, 2019, at at Stang Mongkolsuk Conference Room, Faculty of Science, Mahidol University, Phaya Thai campus.

Assoc. Prof. Sittiwat Lertsiri, Dean of MUSC, along with Assoc. Prof. Kanyaratt Supaibulwatana, Vice Dean, welcomed Prof. Satoru Kondo, Deputy Dean of CUHORT, Prof. Eiji Goto, Asst. Prof. Na Lu, and Asst. Prof. Shinji Kikuchi, delegations and invited speakers from CU.

Each year, MUSC and CUHORT co-organized joint symposium to strengthen the long-lasting relationship in academic exchange. This year joint symposium aims to create an opportunity to present, discuss and share experiences on recent advanced research in horticulture among human resource in science from both institutions and outside participants for the improved quality of life.

Moreover, this activity was not only be used to enhance the collaboration mechanism but also to enhance advanced research knowledge about protected horticulture for the CU-MU Collaborative Research and Training Center in Plant Factory (CU-MU CRTP), under the mutual support of the Center for Creative Innovation of Food, Environment and Health, Chiba University Bangkok Center and the School of Bioinnovation and Bio-based Product Intelligence, Faculty of Science, Mahidol University, is established as a regional center

On this occasion, seven oral presentations related to the topic were conducted by invited speakers from CU and MU who keenly experts in the field.